The Novmber business meeting of the Gamma Psi Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha International was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Becker of Redondo Beach.

Remaining Christmas cards orders were turned in and the losing team, consisting of Mmes. Donald Jodrey, Richard Beck, Lem Short, Robert Becker, and Jerome Hoffman, will hostess the Christmas Party which will be held Dec. 17 at the home of Mrs. Joseph Premeaux, 224 2nd St., Manhattan Beach.

The next meeting, Nov. 26, will be an educational one, presented by Mrs. Robert Gunderson and Mrs. Glen Hester, followed by the Jewel Pin

Ceremony for pledges—Mmes. Donald Jodrey, Richard Tuerbert and Jerome Hoffman. Mrs. Robert Beck from Kappa Delta Chapter will become officially affiliated with Gamma Psi Chapter.

Members and their husbands joined in games, dancing and eating at a masquerade Halloween party held recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tuerbert, 724 W. 132nd St., Hawthorne.

Those attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Richard Beck, Robert Becker, Charles Groutage, Robert Gunderson, Glen Hester, Jerome Hoffman, Donald Jodrey, Robert Kessenich, Wilton LeBlanc, Pete Millar, Joseph Premeaux, Philip Wade, and Dean Neidhart.

ATTEND CONCERT—Mrs. Minnie Solomon accompanied by Mrs. Dorothea Wrangham of San Fernando Valley spent Saturday and Sunday at the Billmore Hotel in Los Angeles. Highlight of the week end was the Fred Waring concert at the Philharmonic on Saturday. The concert was of special interest to Mrs. Solomon who has visited many times in the Waring home in Harrisburg, Pa. On Sunday Mrs. Solomon and Mrs. Wrangham attended services at St. Paul's Cathedral.

ALUMNAE COFFEE FRIDAY MORNING—Kappa Alpha Theta South Bay Alumnae Club "coffee" will be held Friday, Nov. 22 at 10 a.m., at the home of Mrs. A. C. Niemever, 1601 Margate Rd., Palos Verdes Estates. Mrs. David Dangler and Mrs. Evan Chatfield will be co-hostesses. Presentation of the slate of new officers for 1958 by the nominating committee is on the agenda. Plans for the annual Christmas party will be discussed.

P T A Crenshaw

The inspiring selections of Los Cancioneros, popular Southland vocal group, under the direction of Donald Bremen, highlighted the Crenshaw Elementary PTA program, Nov. 6, held at Crenshaw School Cafeteria.

Dr. Warren Hamilton, Director of Special Services, Torrance Unified School District, Mrs. Margiebell Brown, District Psychologist—Special Education; and Mr. Robert D. Dollarhide, District Psychologist—Guidance, informed the association of the Special Services offered for the Physically Handicapped, Mentally Retarded and Gifted Child in the Torrance Area.

Mrs. Dorothy Anderson, presented certificates to the following graduates of the Parent-Teacher-Instruction Course held recently at Crenshaw School: Mrs. R. H. Carroll, Mrs. Todd McCarty, Mrs. John Ramirez, Mrs. C. M. Richards, Mrs. H. D. Robinson, and Mrs. William Wells.

DINNER GUESTS—Dinner guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. Bingham, 1519 Engracia, on Sunday evening were Mrs. Bingham's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Lehman and daughter, Linda, of San Fernando.

WATER DIFFUSED—It is estimated that corn plants diffuse two and one-half tons of water into the air while they are producing one bushel of corn.

Mrs. L. C. Dearden, gave interesting reports on the PTA Magazines.

The tables were festively decorated by the First Grade Room Mothers. Presiding at the serving table were Mrs. Madeline Woehloke and Mrs. Evelyn Harper, first grade teachers.

Sepulveda

"American Heritage" will be the theme for Sepulveda Elementary's PTA meeting on Nov. 21 at 8 p.m. in the cafeteria.

The guest speaker will be Mrs. Gertrude Burbage, Curriculum Consultant for the Torrance Board of Education. Her speech will stress particular phases of education in the immediate area.

Entertainment will be provided by an "Indian Dancers" group of the South Bay.

Plans were formulated for a "book drive" to be held at Christmas time for Sepulveda Elementary school's needy library, at the Nov. 14 PTA board meeting.

Instead of the usual White Gift offering, the children will be asked to bring a book donation for their school library.

The school's small library for children consists of only 32 books which have been donated in the past by school children.

Parents are urged to send suitable, challenging books for children of all ages. There is a great need for stimulating books through the school library for home reading.

Mrs. Ben Holden, president, appointed a committee to assist in the staging of a "book Drive" for the school.

Newton

"Arithmetic Through the Grades" will be the topic of the Newton PTA meeting to be held on Nov. 21, with Principal Webster Smith conducting the discussion groups on this subject.

Mrs. Henry A. Graef brought to the attention of the members at the board meeting the new television series, "Problems in Living Today" seen Tuesday, at 4 p.m. on KOOP, Channel 13. This is an educational series of program dealing with problems which arise in human living and one which would provide an interesting study group.

Mrs. Fred Geisel gave a report on the Carnival and read a thank you letter to all who worked so hard to make the Carnival a success. There will be a further sale of T-shirts, head scarves and pennants at the next PTA meeting.

Flavian

Mrs. Chester Black, budget and finance chairman of Flavian PTA, announces that they will again show Saturday "Comedy" movies for the children of this area.

These films, the first of which is intitled "The Bullfighter," will be shown every other Saturday starting Nov. 3. There will be two showings, one at 10 a.m. and one at 1 p.m. in the Flavian Cafeteria, corner Hallson and Flavian Sts.

This PTA sponsored event will be properly supervised. A small donation will be accepted. Other movies of this series will be announced at a later date.
